

GROUP
LEADERSHIP
101

Post-course Test

1	Safety-Wise is the resource book that provides program standards, safety guidelines, and basic leadership resources.	True	False
2	The Promise and Law describe the way girls grow and develop through Girl Scouting.	True	False
3	Girl Scouts, in their role as Girl Scouts, may raise money for or solicit for money for another organization, such as the Red Cross.	True	False
4	Juliette Gordon Low (Daisy) was the founder of Girl Scouting in the United States.	True	False
5	When a girl leaves a troop, all of the money she helped to raise is given back to her.	True	False
6	The Four Program Goals are: 1. Develop to her full individual potential 2. Relate to others with increased understanding 3. Contribute to the improvement of society 4. Develop values to guide her actions	True	False
7	Activity Checkpoints are the basic minimums to guide the planning and implementation of specific activities you will do with your girls.	True	False
8	The Troop Year-End Financial Report must be completed in July of each year and sent to the GSSN Council Office along with the most recent bank statement.	True	False
9	The recommended ratios of adults to girls during meetings are, two adults for every:  10 Daisy Girl Scouts 15 Brownie Girl Scouts 20 Junior Girl Scouts 25 Cadette Girl Scouts 30 Senior Girl Scouts	True True True True True	False False False False False
10	You must complete the Short Trip/High Risk Activity Application Form when planning a camping trip to a local campground over a three day weekend (Friday night through Monday afternoon).	True	False
11	The Four Program Goals are the foundation of Girl Scout values.	True	False
12	Your troop's meeting place must adhere to six safety criteria.	True	False
13	The Parent Permission Slip must be completed anytime your troop meets in a place other than the usual meeting place or at a different time or anytime the girls will be transported in a vehicle.	True	False
14	The Four Special Days in Girl Scouting are: October 31, Juliette Low's Birthday February 22, Thinking Day March 19, Girl Scout Birthday April 24, Leaders' Day	True True True True	False False False False
15	You must schedule your troop meetings for 60 minutes each, at least once a week.	True	False

e-mail to: training@gssn.org